Shared dining & Sides

Food as it's meant to be: shared.

Our dishes are made to share — small bites that together make for a rich table. But rules are there to be bent.

Order one dish as a snack, choose a few small portions if you're not very hungry, or combine them to your taste into a full meal. Chicken satay, fries and a salad? That's also a perfectly delicious meal!

You decide how you eat...
